BEAVER VALLEY CAMP RULES

1. All campers will at all times live out their Christian faith by word and deed. You are baptized children of God; you are new creations!
2. All campers must remain within the boundaries of the campsite, which include only the areas of cut grass.
3. When the bell tolls, you will have 5 minutes to be at the lodge. Help each other in this task.
4. There will be absolutely no cabin raiding (boys raiding girls' cabins, or vice versa). Violation of this rule will automatically result in your expulsion from camp.
5. Respect your staff at all times, as well as one another's property.
6. All campers will shower at least once a day to check for ticks.
7. Absolutely no food will be allowed in the cabins. This is state law.
8. Absolutely no electronic devices of any kind will be allowed (cell phones, radios, CD/tape players, video games, etc.).
9. No one is allowed in the kitchen without permission.
10. All campers will participate in all activities to the best of their abilities.

CONTACT INFORMATION

As cell phone service is unavailable at Beaver Valley, you may contact the camp at (308) 638-7580 in cases of emergency.
